

What is the assurance of the respondents that the information provided to PSA will not be used against them in lawsuits or for other purposes?

Section 26 of RA No. 10625 assures respondents that individual data furnished by a respondent to statistical inquiries, surveys and censuses of the PSA shall be considered privileged communication and as such shall be inadmissible as evidence in any proceeding. The PSA may release aggregated information from statistical inquiries, surveys and censuses in the form of summaries or statistical tables in which no reference to an individual corporation, association, partnership, institution or business enterprise shall appear.

Section 27 of RA No. 10625 imposes penalties on respondents who fail to give truthful and complete answers to statistical inquiries. Any violation of this Act shall result in the imposition of the penalty of one (1) year imprisonment and a fine of one hundred thousand pesos (P100,000.00). In addition, erring corporation or any other juridical entity, depending on the category whether small, medium or large, shall be imposed a fine ranging from one hundred thousand pesos (P100,000.00) to five hundred thousand pesos (P500,000.00).

When will the 2014 ASPBI and 2014 STEP results be available? What is the mode of data dissemination?

Preliminary and final tables produced from the survey shall be presented by sector at the national and regional level. Special Releases by sector for preliminary results will be available starting February 2016, and for the final results starting May 2016. These Special Releases will be posted on the PSA website for quick viewing and retrieval by stakeholders.

National and regional data dissemination seminars are planned to be conducted in August 2016 and September 2016, respectively.
