Memorandum

TO : All City/Municipal Civil Registrars

FROM :
Carmelita N. Erieta
Administrator and Civil Registrar General

SUBJECT : Delayed registration of Filipino deportees from Malaysia

This is in connection with the Filipino deportees from Sabah, Malaysia. In coordination with the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA), the National Statistics Office (NSO) - Region IX facilitated the delayed registration of birth of these deportees. The said delayed registration process was needed in the procurement of their passports from the DFA.

This office is fully aware of the procedure/rule in the implementation of delayed registration. Because of the abnormality and urgency of the situation, there are requirements in this rule which the deportees may not be able to present to support their application for delayed registration. Thus, as long as the registrant can submit minimal requirements, please consider the registration of the deportees. Please be informed that the deportees urgently need their birth certificates for them to secure their passports and VISAs in order to get back to their jobs in Malaysia.

Please be guided accordingly.
